Dearest A.D., It is I, myself, your little Elizabeth Greene, who will make myself a Christmas present of a dear sight of your dear face, For I propose to spend my Christmas in Boston, & I shall hike me to the Charlesgate as soon as I have taken breath after the journey, and satisfy my soul, Your little note in your own hand is my treasure till then. And I shall see O.T.D., & offer my own little leaf of laurel, & thank her besides for her many human kindnesses, which she has not forgot to let fall.

I will write again, when I have found myself in Boston, & am now & always yours, -
"Yours to keep." Elizabeth.

We expect to go to the "Thorncliffe" the Bellmore impossible this time.

After 5 days, return to

E. B. Greene
